October 29, 1977

Dear Admiral Turner:

On behalf of the University of Virginia School of Law and the John Bassett Moore Society of International Law, I am pleased to invite you to address the University community.

In the recent past, the Law School has sponsored such speakers as Senators Humphrey and Kennedy, Former Ambassador to the United Nations Charles Yost and U.S. Member to the International Court of Justice J. Hardy Dillard. The student and faculty response to speakers in areas of international concern has been enthusiastic and the speeches have attracted large audiences as well as extensive press coverage.

The Moore Society will, of course, be happy to pay all expenses involved in your visit. Charlottesville is only a 35 minute flight from Washington, D.C., so prompt arrival and departure can be arranged to fit your schedule. It is also a lovely two hour drive from Washington.

There is considerable faculty and student interest in your work and the work of the agency within the University of Virginia academic community. I hope that you will have the time to spend an afternoon in Charlottesville at the University.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further information.

Sincerely,

Gale A. Mattox
